INDIGENOUS AND EXOTIC some organs of the Upper North Island - New Zealand

29th Annual Conference
30 SEPTEMBER – 5 OCTOBER
2006
Auckland and Waikato regions
New Zealand

Indigenous and Exotic

The 2006 OHTA conference sees our second visit to New Zealand, this time to Auckland and the Waikato regions of the Upper North Island.

We will have the welcome opportunity to see and hear a number of historic instruments, particularly those by the significant local firm of George Croft together with Lawton & Osborne, an offshoot of a prominent Scottish firm. Additionally, there will be visits to instruments by notable overseas builders, particularly John Avery, Brindley & Foster, Harrison & Harrison and Henry Jones. A number of these organs are located in splendid wooden churches with notable fittings.

We will also have time to see the wonderful harbourside setting of Auckland, the expansive countryside to the south, the historic town of Rotorua, with its geo-thermal areas, and Thames, at the base of the Coromandel Peninsula.

There will be a number of informative talks on organs and buildings by authorities such as Dr Ron Newton, Alan Buchan, John Hargraves, Bruce Petry and John Maidment, together with a speaker on North American organs. There will also be several recitals by prominent local musicians including John Wells, James Tibbles, Eugene Lavery, Stephen Beech, Rachel Griffiths and Ron Clarke.

Four lunches, four dinners and several morning/afternoon teas are provided as part of the full registration fee.
