An Island Inheritance

The Organ Historical Trust of Australia 34th annual conference will be held in Tasmania from Tuesday 26 April (immediately after Easter 2011 and Anzac Day) and conclude in Launceston on Sunday 1 May.

The conference will include visits to organs, mostly of historic significance, recitals, lectures and visits to places and buildings of scenic or architectural interest.

Accommodation has been reserved in hotels in Hobart and Launceston for the duration of the conference. A number of meals will be provided and bus transportation will be provided on four of the days.

Organs by the following builders will be visited:

AUSTRALIAN ORGANBUILDERS : William Anderson (Melbourne), Davis & Laurie (Melbourne), J.E. Dodd (Adelaide), George Fincham (Melbourne), Fincham & Hobday (Melbourne), Hill, Norman & Beard (Australia) Pty Ltd (Melbourne), G.F. Hopkins (Launceston), Samuel Joscelyne (Launceston), Hans Meijer (Launceston).

OVERSEAS ORGANBUILDERS : Bevington & Sons (London), Bishop & Son (London), Charles Brindley (Sheffield), John Gray (London), Hill & Son (London), J.W. Walker & Sons (London & Ruislip)

PROGRAMME SUMMARY

Tuesday 26 April

Organs in Hobart including the recently-enlarged organ in St Mary's Cathedral and the concert organ in Hobart Town Hall where recitals will take place. Visit to St Canice's Church, Sandy Bay, with its spectacular views and to 'Runnymede', New Town, the residence of Bishop F.R. Nixon who had two pipe organs installed there in the mid-19th century. Keynote address 'Profits and Losses'.

Wednesday 27 April

Organs outside Hobart. Visit to Australia's first church organ at St Matthew's Church, Rokeby. Visit to the Pugin-designed church of St Patrick, Colebrook, with its triple-arch bellcote recently restored. Visit to Richmond and St Luke's Church to hear the Bevington & Sons organ and to the rebuilt Hill & Son organ at St John's Church, New Town. Evening reception at Government House.

Thursday 28 April

Travel between Hobart and Launceston. Includes organs by Bevington & Sons at St Mark's Church, Pontville and Samuel Joscelyne at St Michael's Church, Bothwell, with lunch in the historic town. In the afternoon, visits to organs by J.W. Walker at St Luke's Church, Campbell Town and Bishop & Son at Christ Church, Longford.

Friday 29 April

All day on foot in Launceston. Includes organs by Bevington & Sons at City Baptist Church, J.E. Dodd at Pilgrim Uniting Church, G.F. Hopkins at St John's Church and George Fincham at Holy Trinity Church and Trinity Uniting Church. The day will include several papers and a meeting of OHTA members.

Saturday 30 April

A trip to the west of Launceston and to the northern coast. Visits to Burnie, Devonport and on the return to organs by Samuel Joscelyne at St Mark's, La Trobe, J.W. Walker at St Mark's, Deloraine, William Anderson at Holy Trinity, Westbury and a new instrument by Hans Meijer at the Free Reformed Church, Legana.

Sunday 1 May

Morning free to attend church services, explore Launceston and visit the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery. Afternoon private visit to the Albert Hall with its unique 1860 Charles Brindley organ, the oldest surviving concert instrument in Australia. Participants will have time to get back to Launceston airport for return flights to the mainland.
