Past Evidence Future Keys

The 2008 OHTA annual conference is to take place in Victoria, based in Melbourne and Bendigo, in the Victorian countryside. The theme of the conference will be the technical documentation of significant pipe organs and how this information can be used to facilitate accurate restoration and reconstruction. The keynote speaker will be Paul Peeters, from Gothenburg, Sweden, the President of the International Association for Organ Documentation. Recitals will take place by notable performers James Tibbles (Auckland), Elmo Cosentini (Vienna), Sam Allchurch (Melbourne), and Peter Jewkes (Sydney). There will be visits to significant organs by the local builders William Anderson, George Fincham, Alfred Fuller, Hill, Norman & Beard, Daniel Lemke and William Stone, and the overseas builders Bishop & Son, Hamlin & Son, Hill & Son, Merklin et Cie, Frederick W. Nicholson, R.A. Randebrock, Henry Willis, Wurlitzer – and anon. There will also be time in Bendigo to explore this significant Victorian city and its splendid buildings, gardens and art gallery.
