I wish to play at ‘open console’ sessions

I am interested in attending the Sunday recital in Port Pirie, and would like to explore transport options. (This may be an additional expense.)

Restoration, Rebuilding, Reconstruction 42nd OHTA Annual Conference

The Organ Historical Trust of Australia's 2019 Conference will be held in South Australia, based in the capital city of Adelaide with a day in the Barossa Valley. The theme of the conference is based around the three organ building approaches of Restoration, Rebuilding, and Reconstruction. This will be explored in a series of lectures and organ visits.

The two cathedral organs in Adelaide will be visited, one of which was newly installed in 2016 (Casavant Frères / Wakeley Pipe Organs), and the other fully restored in 2018 (Hill, Norman & Beard / Harrison & Harrison.) A visit to Tanunda will enable the 1877 Hill & Son concert organ at the Barossa Regional Gallery to be heard and inspected in its completed state.

The conference will also put a spotlight on the notable South Australian German immigrant organbuilder J. W. Wolff and we will hear his 1867 chamber organ which is in the final stages of being restored, as well as a range of prominent 20th century organs.

PROGRAMME SUMMARY

Sunday 29 September (optional extra)

Although not part of the conference, we advise that Dominic Perissinotto is giving a recital at St Mark's Catholic Cathedral (Dodd / Stephens), Port Pirie, at 2:30pm. Port Pirie is a 2.5 hour drive from Adelaide.

Monday 30 September: Eastern suburbs

Day 1 begins with registration 9:00am at St John's Anglican Church, 379 Halifax Street, Adelaide (a 15 minute walk from the hotel). Demonstration and open console (Dodd and Fray organs), then visits to organs in the 'leafy' eastern suburbs: Pembroke College (George Stephens), Dulwich / Rose Park (Dodd), and the Norwood Unitarian Church (Wolff reb. Dodd.) A visit to the St Peter's College Wurlitzer, the theatre organ previously located in the Adelaide Regent Theatre, concludes the first day.

Tuesday 1 October: The CBD & North Adelaide

The day begins at St Patrick's Church (Dodd) and Elder Hall (1979 Casavant). A recital on the recently installed 1927 Casavant Frères organ at St Francis Xavier Catholic Cathedral, then on to several diverse instruments in North Adelaide (including Rendall and Wolff/Fincham & Hobday/Gunstar organs). The Conference Dinner is held this evening.

Wednesday 2 October: Southern suburbs, The Hills

Visits to Cabra Dominican College Convent Chapel (Dodd), Westbourne Park (Pogson), Mitcham (Bishop & Son), then a catered lunch. From Coromandel Valley (Stephens), a winding drive through the picturesque Adelaide Hills to Aldgate (Wolff) and Crafers (Smenge). The day concludes with a recital on the recently restored Hill, Norman & Beard organ at St Peter's Anglican Cathedral, North Adelaide.

Thursday 3 October: The Barossa Valley

We travel north through Salisbury (1971 JE Dodd & Son Gunstar) to Tanunda, where the OHTA AGM will be held and several papers presented. The Hill & Son grand organ and Roger Lewis chamber organ in the Barossa Regional Gallery, as well as other local organs, will be open for playing in the afternoon. There is an optional trip to the iconic Seppeltsfield tourism precinct. There will be an evening recital on the Hill & Son organ. Following dinner next door at The Clubhouse, Tanunda, the bus returns to the city.

Friday 4 October: Western suburbs

The final day begins with the unveiling of a rare 1860's Wolff chamber organ, fully restored by George Stephens. Then on to Plympton Uniting (Rushworth & Dreaper), Plympton Anglican (1980 George Fincham & Sons), and Immanuel College Chapel, Novar Gardens (Collins). The coach will arrive at Adelaide Airport by 4:00pm and return to the city.

ACCOMMODATION

You will need to book your own accommodation in Adelaide for four nights: 30 September – 3 October, and arrange your own travel to and from Adelaide.

Accommodation has been reserved at the Chifley On South Terrace Hotel, 226 South Terrace, Adelaide. This is within walking distance of the free Adelaide city centre tram. Participants will need to make their own arrangements directly with the hotel, before the end of June if possible. To book, phone the Chifley On South Terrace on (08) 8223 4355 and quote "Organ Historical Trust of Australia" to access the rooms set aside for the conference. The tariff ranges from $112 per night for Standard Twin to $140 per night for Studio rooms. Breakfast is extra, but is cheaper when booked at the time of your room booking.

TRANSPORTATION

Coaches will be used each day and will leave outside the Chifley On South Terrace Hotel.
